EVENING WRAP OF NEW EXPOSITION VELVET

Exposition velvet, a beautifully soft, silky material, was used for this charming evening wrap for a debutante. In the new mother of pearl shade, a soft ivorylike yellow, this wrap is particularly luxurious, and bands of rich fur further enhance its beauty.

AFTERNOON FROCK IN GREEN AND BLACK

Green charmeuse is combined with black panne velvet in this frock, designed for afternoon wear. The simulated pockets are edged with gold braid, while the little coat blouse is trimmed with gold and black cord ornaments. The green charmeuse sleeves have cuffs of skunk, and the same fur outlines the collar and bands the panne velvet skirt. The little vest is of cream silk.

HANDSOME FROCK OF PLAID TAFFETA.

Self plaid taffeta promises to be among the season's favorite materials, and exceedingly lovely is the frock pictured. A tunic of gray chiffon banded with skunk is posed over a skirt of gray plaid taffeta. The bodice of gray chiffon shows a deep girdle of caffaeta trimmed with two handsomely cut steel buttons. A novel feature of the frock is the cut steel edged cape of chiffon, which extends to the waist at the back.
